ALL MERCY

CBN's
7 DAYS ABLAZE

*So let us come boldly to the throne
of our gracious God.
There we will receive his mercy, and we will find grace to help us when we need it most.*

-Hebrews 4:16

IT IS WONDERFUL TO KNOW THAT GOD HAS PROMISED WHEN WE COME TO HIS THRONE
IN PRAYER—WE WILL RECEIVE HIS MERCY!

As we boldly bring our thanks, our requests, our needs and troubles to God, the Lord who is abundant in mercy is ready and willing to wrap His arms around us and shower us with His wonderful grace.

The dictionary defines mercy as: compassion or forgiveness shown toward someone who is an offender and is within one's power to punish or harm. The Bible tells us that God poured out the punishment that we deserved on His dearly loved Son, Jesus. When Jesus died on Calvary He paid the full price for our forgiveness. God placed our sin on Jesus and He placed Jesus' righteousness on every one who has received Him as Lord and Savior. That's why we can come "boldly" to God's throne—because we come in Jesus Christ, covered by the blood He shed on Calvary that washed away our sins.

All of us are facing difficult times in the world right now. We are living with the constant threat of COVID-19, social unrest, upcoming elections, as well as the struggles and challenges of everyday life in this world. This is definitely a time when we need God's grace and mercy to revive us, refresh us, and protect us.

It is vitally important to remember that all of the mercy and grace we need is just a prayer away. Come boldly to the throne of God and you will find the help, comfort, compassion and encouragement that you require for anything you are facing today.

Let these verses that follow remind you that our God is a God of mercy. Just call on the name of Jesus and His presence will fill you with courage and strength. Sometimes the best way to pray is to speak God's Word back to Him. He is the promise-keeping God, and He is committed to fulfilling His promises to us. God's Word will bless you as you spend time meditating on the following verses. There's mercy and peace for you there.
